

▼ Research & Development of Counterintelligence and Security Equipment ▼ Design, Fabrication & Installation of Special Requirement
Security and Alarm Equipment ▼ Clandestine Listening Countermeasures Surveys & Equipment ▼ Consultants in Special Security Problems ▼

RESUME OF

ALLAN D. BELL

dektor

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE AND SECURITY, INC.

5508 Port Royal Rd., Springfield, Va. 22151

RESUME OF

ALLAN D. BELL, JR - 5054 BLUE RIDGE ROAD - ANNANDALE, VIRGINIA - 22003 - PHONE: (703) 941-7452

EDUCATION:

Three years undergraduate: Elon College, N.C., and Norfolk Division of William and Mary; pre-engineering and Romance languages; won the annual award (William and Mary) for Excellence in Modern Languages. (1941-1942; 1946-1948)

1945 - USMS Radio Training School; 5 months.

1949 - Leadership Training School; 6 weeks.

1949 - Officer Candidate School; 6 months.

1950 - Artillery Officers' Associate Basic Course; 3 months.

1952 - Artillery Fire Control Officer Course (Radar and Computer); 31 weeks.

1954 - Basic Counterintelligence Investigator Course; 14 weeks.

1955 - Army Language School (Japanese); 12 months.

1960 - Military Intelligence Advanced Officer Course; 8 months.

1961 - Classified Intelligence Special Techniques Course; 1 week.

1961 - Identikit Course; 1 week.

1964 - U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, Regular Course; 38 weeks.

1968 - Operations Research/Systems Analysis Course; 5 weeks.

EXPERIENCE:

Apr 1970 - Present - President and Chairman of the Board of Dektor Counterintelligence and Security, Inc.

Nov 1968-Apr 1970 - Conducted activities in preparation for the establishment and operation of a company directed toward the development of materiel to fulfill higher-level requirements of intelligence, counterintelligence and security, and toward the highest-level counterintelligence and countermeasures services. Performed intelligence threat analysis on basis of known and feasible threat techniques; conducted systems analysis of existing counterintelligence and countermeasures procedures and materiel to determine validity of existing procedures and equipment; determined and accomplished changes and improvements required for optimum procedures; determined or validated requirements for new materiel; initiated 25 new materiel development projects (see INVENTIONS). Performed required initial market survey and initiated the

RESUME: ALLAN D. BELL, JR.

SUMMARY: Summary of attached detailed resume.

PRESENT POSITION: President and Chairman of the Board of Dektor Counterintelligence and Security, Inc.

EDUCATION: Three years undergraduate; 56 months additional professional training.

EXPERIENCE: Fifteen years military intelligence at all levels from the Office of the Secretary of Defense to Intelligence Unit with staff, management and operational experience in Counterintelligence, Area Intelligence, and Combat Intelligence; research and development of Intelligence Special Equipment; operations research and systems analysis in study of aforementioned functional areas; establishment, organization and management of, and participation in several operational, technical, and research and development activities. Retired as Regular Army Lieutenant Colonel. Subsequent one and a half years a self-funded period involving intelligence threat analysis; systems analysis of existing counterintelligence and countermeasures procedures and materiel; determination of requirements for new or improved procedures and materiel; and development of said procedures and materiel. As a result of this activity, organized and incorporated Dektor Counterintelligence and Security, Inc.

MILITARY OCCUPATIONAL SPECIALTIES: Sixteen, eleven of which are in intelligence, counterintelligence and security, including MOS Prefixes in Research and Development, Operations Research and Systems Analysis, and Instruction.

ADDITIONAL TECHNICAL SPECIALTIES: Ten additional qualifications in support of intelligence and counterintelligence.

MILITARY DECORATIONS AND AWARDS: Six decorations; six awards.

PUBLICATIONS: Author or co-author of thirty-seven publications in the fields of intelligence and security.

INVENTIONS: Prior to Dektor's incorporation, eleven inventions in Intelligence and Counterintelligence donated to Army Intelligence; one invention professionally employed in Karate training; during aforementioned one and a half year self-funded period, developed three materiel projects to final hardware stage.